

House Resolution No. 3054

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who admirably develop and maintain excellent reputations in light of their long involvement in the field of education; and

Whereas, Glenda Mitchell Myles attained considerable distinction as an elementary, junior high, and high school librarian who began and finished her educational career as a certificated member of the Ferguson-Florissant R-II School District of Saint Louis, Missouri; and

Whereas, in 1975 with only sixty college credits on her transcript, Glenda Myles was hired by the Kinloch School District, which subsequently merged with Ferguson-Florissant schools; and

Whereas, Glenda Myles diligently continued her higher education and acquired certification from the states of Oklahoma, Illinois, and Missouri and the federal Department of Defense as the military spouse of Greg Myles, Sr.; and

Whereas, between her initial hiring in 1975 and her retirement from teaching in 2007, Glenda Myles taught at Berkeley Junior High School; Cross Keys Junior High School; Enid, Oklahoma; Belton; the Azores of Portugal; Mascoutah Sixth Street Elementary School; Riverview High School; and finally, McCluer North High School, which was ranked the number one school through Missouri ACT thanks in large measure to a program headed by Glenda; and

Whereas, at Lindenwood University Glenda Myles made history by finishing her certification as a principal in one summer by taking thirty-two credits and making all "A" grades; and

Whereas, immediately after retiring from the Ferguson-Florissant R-II School District on August 31, 2007, Glenda Myles became the Executive Administrator and co-Pastor of Saint John Missionary Baptist Church on September 1, 2007:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered thus far in the life and work of Glenda Myles and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she shifts the focus of her time and energy to service with Saint John Missionary Baptist Church; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Glenda Mitchell Myles of Saint Louis, Missouri.
